

APPLICANTS - CONSENT TO SHARE PERSONAL DATA

In order to verify details of an applicants previous employment within the NHS such as your dates of employment and pay point, the Trust is required to contact your previous employer or employers to verify this information. No information will be shared without the applicants prior consent; however failure to provide consent will mean that it is not possible to verify these details and may potentially mean that previous service may not be recognised. Any requests for information will not be submitted until successful applicants have been made a conditional offer of employment by the Trust.

Similarly, should an employee leave their employment with Barnsley Hospital NHS Foundation Trust the Trust may also receive requests from future prospective employers with regards to information for this purpose.

By submitting an application for employment to the Trust via NHS Jobs you are agreeing to the following statement and provide your consent for the Trust to share information with regards to your employment for this purpose:

“I understand that any information supplied may be held on the Trust’s systems and may be shared with other NHS Organisations / Governmental Bodies. However, sensitive information will not be released to any unauthorised third party without my prior consent. I explicitly consent to the Trust holding my details and certify that the information given, to the best of my knowledge is correct and I agree to notify the Trust of any subsequent changes.”

If you would like any further information please contact the Human Resources Department on 01226 432721.
